NUMISMATIC ORIGINS OF...

IN GOD WE TRUST

Editors Note: Many thanks to Pamela Swiney, editor of the Fort Worth Coin Club Newsletter. Pamela provided us with the web site of the Treasury Department. The site has several interesting educational items, the following being one of them. We also used the Wikipedia web site to obtain additional information. Both web site addresses are at the end of this article.

he motto IN GOD WE TRUST was placed on United States coins largely because of the increased religious sentiment existing during the Civil War. Secretary of the Treasury Salmon P. Chase received many appeals from devout persons throughout the country, urging that the United States recognize the Deity on United States coins. From Treasury Department records, it appears that the first such appeal came in a letter dated November 13, 1861. It was written to Secretary Chase by Rev. M. R. Watkinson, Minister of the Gospel from Ridleyville, Pennsylvania, and read:

Dear Sir: You are about to submit your annual report to the Congress respecting the affairs of the national finances.

One fact touching our currency has hitherto been seriously overlooked. I mean the recognition of the Almighty God in some form on our coins.

You are probably a Christian. What if our Republic were not shattered beyond reconstruction? Would not the antiquaries of succeeding centuries rightly reason from our past that we were a heathen nation? What I propose is that instead of the goddess of liberty we shall have next inside the 13 stars a ring inscribed with the words PERPETUAL UNION; within the ring the allseeing eye, crowned with a halo; beneath this eye the American flag, bearing in its field stars equal to the number of the States united; in the folds of the bars the words GOD, LIBERTY, LAW.

This would make a beautiful coin, to which no possible citizen could object. This would relieve us from the ignominy of heathenism. This would place us openly under the Divine protection we have personally claimed. From my hearth I have felt our national shame in disowning God as not the least of our present national disasters.

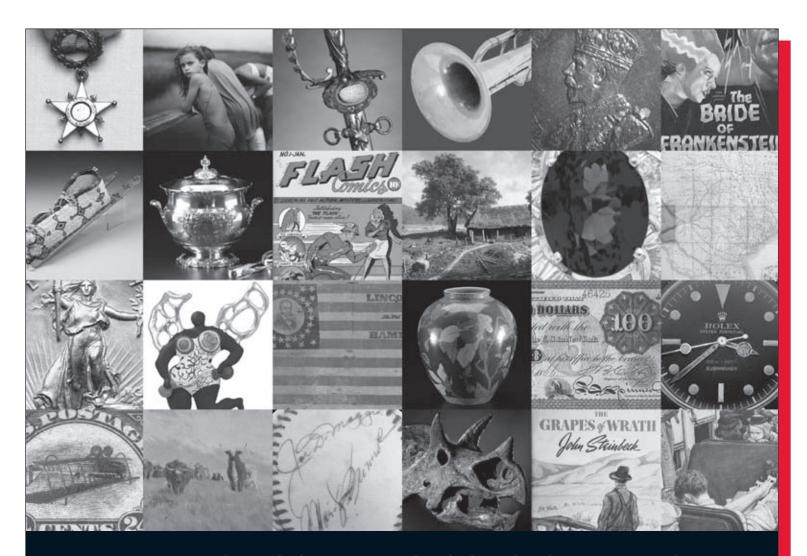

To you first I address a subject that must be agitated.

As a result, Secretary Chase instructed James Pollock, Director of the Mint at Philadelphia, to prepare a motto, in a letter dated November 20, 1861:

Dear Sir: No nation can be strong except in the strength of God, or safe except in His defense. The trust of our people in God should be declared on our national coins.

You will cause a device to be prepared without unnecessary delay with a motto expressing in the fewest and tersest words possible this national recognition.

It was found that the Act of Congress dated January 18, 1837, prescribed the mottoes and devices that should be placed upon the coins of the United States. This meant that the mint could make no changes without the enactment of additional legislation by the Congress.

Greetings!

We hope our TNA members are enjoying the summer after a busy spring in the Texas coin collecting hobby attending the Several coin shows available. Now we can bring out those acquisitions and spend some extratime studying and enjoying them.

An initial glance at our cover might give the impression that somehow the TNA News has become a religious publication but that is not the case. Numismatic news and education continues to be our goal for the membership of the TNA. "IN GOD WE TRUST" is such a regular part of the design of U.S. coins and currency that many of us give it little thought. However, there are those who have stronger feelings about this part of U.S. numismatic representation, so we thought it would be a good idea to present a bit of history showing how this phrase came to be included on our coins and currency.

President Mike Grant fills us in on his ideas about how our organization can continue to change and improve. We look forward to working with Mike to make that happen. Congratulations to Debbie Williams on her appointment as Exhibits Chair. We are glad to have the TNA Youth Newsletter from Kathy Lawrence with another fine educational presentation for our young collectors.

The "Wild West" and silver dollars go hand-in-hand as represented in many novels and movies. The Carson City Mint played a big part in this perception producing large quantities of silver dollars during its heyday. We hope you enjoy the story of this most interesting institution and the political drama that accompanied its existence.

The TNA News has always provided the names and contact information of our Officers, Governors and Committee Chairs. Now our members have the additional knowledge of what these fine people look like. Almost all of our TNA representatives now have their pictures included with their contact information on page 22. We hope to have the remaining photos available in our next issue. Now you will be able to introduce yourself when you see them and let them know your thoughts and hopes for the TNA.

We have other interesting items in this issue and hope you enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed putting it together.

It's time to send this edition to the printer! Until next issue, Ron Kersey

In Memoriam

FRANCIS TOWNSEND

TNA has received word that TNA Member, Francis Townsend, passed away on June 2. Mr.

Townsend was a member of the Greater Houston Coin Club, serving as President, Treasurer and other elected roles. He Chaired the Money Show of the Southwest for a couple of years in the 1990's. In recent years, he also served the Club as Registrar for the Money Show.

Francis Townsend served in the U. S. Navy during the Korean Conflict. He was an active member of St. Mark Lutheran Church serving on the board of stewardship, as an usher and communion assistant. His other activities include blood donor, senior softball and 20 other organizations. Mr. Townsend is survived by his wife, children and many other loving relatives and friends.

In remembering Francis, GHCC Secretary, Richard Laster, had these words to say, "We'll remember Francis in a number of ways all of which speak of his ability to dedicate himself to task, his love for numismatics, his joy in being a servant, and of course in the love he shared in many ways through friendships of various sorts."

Thanks to Martha Sue Kerr-Burke for our puzzle this issue.

FROM THE PRESIDENT...

y president's letter is about the upcoming 50th anniversary of the TNA in 2010. Most people know that this will be our 52nd show but few know that this is the 50th year we have been in operation. The first year we started as a nonprofit organization was 1960 and in this first year we held two shows labeled as shows one and two, for this reason we now are holding our 52nd show next year. We are looking forward to a great show with David and Ginger Pike putting it on again next year. I have asked a number of people to help give ideas for a fun and eventful show, if any TNA member has ideas please feel free to call or email me with them. We will look into all ideas and see if they are possible and cost effective for the TNA. This may seem early to work on this but believe me time slips away too fast for any event and this needs to be planned now.

I have talked with Hal Cherry and communicated with Ron Kersey about the TNA News. We are going to be communicating more through the TNA News to our members on a wider variety of subjects.

For instance the youth program that Kathy Lawrence is in charge of - all of her correspondence to those kids will be through the TNA News so that everyone may see how this program is doing. If you have any comments about anything you see in this program that you like or should be changed, or even added to please let either Kathy or myself know and we will see if this can be done.

Debbie Williams is in charge of the Exhibits for the show next year. She will be communicating through the TNA News and will give everyone updates on the exhibits and what you can expect to see when you come to the show. I have also asked Ron to make sure that anyone that is writing in the TNA News have their picture with their article or report, I know he is doing this now but I want all of you to see the people that help run the TNA, your board members, volunteers, and anyone that helps the TNA.

By the way our awards program is not limited to board members, any person the helps numismatics is entitled to recognition and should receive such. I would appreciate hearing from members about people in our organization and the work they have done for numismatics.

At the current time we are looking to hold the next board meeting in October, if anyone has something they think is important and the board should discuss this at the meeting please send me and email and I will take it under advisement. Please do not call me right before the meeting as the agenda will already be set. I need information over a month out, around the first part of September.

Ron Kersey and I are going to work on the "Texas Happenings" section of the TNA News and see if this area can be a little more exciting for readers. Most of the clubs have meetings and the reports are great but we would like to know what else is happening in your areas.

Some suggestions - how was the last coin show in your area, has there been a significant find in the area, has someone traveled to an exotic location and seen something unusual?

An example of this in the DFW area is the person that found an early 1800's pattern dime in a bag of melt dimes and it was auctioned off for approximately $40,000. A few years ago a rare token was found in Fort Worth, this token sold for several thousand dollars. These are things that could be added to a report. These are just suggestions and should be taken this way.

I hope to hear from you soon!

Sincerely, Michael P. Grant

PRESS RELEASE

HOUSTON'S MONEY SHOW LETS IT ALL HANG OUT!

(Houston, TX) – The Money Show of the Southwest in Houston has announced that it is tripling its advertising and promotion budget. The new program is designed to attract a robust audience to the show from the 5.5 million people living in the greater Houston metropolitan area.

"Recognizing the changing nature of the economy and the competing entertainment events, it has become necessary to place greater emphasis on advertising as a means to inform and attract the public of the opportunity to buy and sell coins, currency and bullion, and in the numbers a large regional show requires to be successful", said Edwin Johnston, Show Chairman.

The Show announced that it has contracted with David Lisot of Cointelevision. com to help develop and manage its broadcast advertising plan. Lisot specializes in video production for use on television as well as streaming on the internet. This plan will include placement of strategically structured ads on local TV, radio and bill-boards. It will also include placement of features, news and interviews designed to interest and attract the identified target audiences. "We need the services of a proven professional to create appealing and effective advertising and then to economically place those messages in the media vehicles that will have the greatest potential to attract our target audience to the Show", continued Johnston.

The program will also place a special emphasis on the downtown business area with its "Businessman's Day at the Money Show." The objective is to attract those individuals who may be interested in investing in coins, paper money or bullion to the show before they leave for their homes in the suburbs. "We are pursuing numerous advertising and promotional ideas to attract a large crowd on Thursday afternoon," Johnston explained.

The dates of the Money Show of the Southwest are Thursday, December 3rd through Saturday, December 5th, 2009. It will open to the public from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday and 10 am to 6 pm on Friday and Saturday. Dealer set-up begins 9 a.m. on Thursday.

For more information on the show go to www.houstoncoinshow.org, e-mail to themoneyshow@comcast.net or call 281-788-1036.

Collecting U.S. Paper Money By Kathy Lawrence

There are many ways to collect United States paper money. One of the easiest and most inexpensive ways to begin is to collect $1 notes from each of the 12 Federal Reserve Districts. If you can find notes from each district that are all from the same series, even better.

Fr. 1925-K $1 1999 Federal Reserve Note (FRN)

How can you figure out which Federal Reserve District your $1 bill is from? If you look at the Federal Reserve Seal to the left of Washington's portrait, you will see a large letter in the center. Each letter represents a different Federal Reserve District. Below the letter, the city and state are also listed.

Following are the district letters and locations for the twelve Federal Reserve Banks:

A - Boston, MA

B - New York, NY

C - Philadelphia, PA

D - Cleveland, OH

E - Richmond, VA

F - Atlanta, GA

G - Chicago, IL

H - St. Louis, MO

I - Minneapolis, MN

J - Kansas City, MO

K - Dallas, TX

L - San Francisco, CA

Numismatic Trivia Questions

Trivia Question #1- Which state has two Federal Reserve Banks?

Trivia Question #2- When was George Washington's portrait first used on a $1 bill?

Trivia Question #3- What is the series for the first $1 Federal Reserve Note (FRN)?

The series information can be found near the bottom margin to the right of Washington's portrait. Although coins are usually dated with the year they were minted, that is not always true of paper money. The series changes when the Secretary of the Treasury or the Treasurer of the United States changes and/or if the design of the note changes. For example, a letter is added to the end of the series year when the Treasurer of the United States changes (ex. 2003A). The design of the $1 bill has basically not changed since 1963. In 1966 the text within the Treasury Seal was changed from Latin to English.

Approximately 45% of the notes printed by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing are $1 bills. The lifespan of the $1 bill is only 21 months because they are used so much.

The design on the back of the $1 note is the Great Seal. The face of the Great Seal was used for the backs of the Series 1905 $20 Gold Certificates. Both sides of the Great Seal were first used on Series 1935 $1 Silver Certificates.

Fr. 1180 $20 1905 Gold Certificate

The Great Seal was adopted in 1782. The face or obverse of the seal includes the American bald eagle and thirteen stars representing the original thirteen states. The motto E Pluribus Unum is Latin meaning "Out of many, one."

The reverse design includes a pyramid representing strength and durability. There is an all-seeing eye above the pyramid. The motto is Annuit Coeptis meaning "He (God) has favored our undertakings." The date in Roman numerals at the bottom of the pyramid is the date of the Declaration of Independence. Novus Ordo Seclorum means "a new order of the ages" and represents our new country in 1776.

Paper Money of the United States by Arthur and Ira Friedberg is the primary reference for the U.S. paper money field. Each different note (based on type, denomination, series, signatures on the note, etc.) is assigned a Friedberg number.

Numismatic Trivia Answers

Trivia Answer #1- There are two Federal Reserve Banks in Missouri. One is in Kansas City and the other is in St. Louis.

Trivia Answer #2- George Washington's portrait was first used on $1s for the Series 1869 United States Notes (Friedberg 18).

Fr. 18 $1 1869 Legal Tender Note

Trivia Answer #3- Series 1963 was the first series for $1 Federal Reserve Notes.

"S" glued on to a 1909 Philadelphia Lincoln cent will likely lack these characteristics. Collectors should of course look out for themselves, but the 1909-S cent is a prime example of a coin which should be bought in top-tier third party grading "slab" in today's market. There are too many "raw" counterfeit or altered pieces circulating in today's market.

3) This is a 1925 Norse Commemorative medal. It is not a commemorative half dollar, though it is often collected with that series. They were struck on 90% silver plachets at the Philadelphia mint in both "thick" and "thin" varieties. The vertical and horizontal measurements of the octagonal planchets are not equal. It remains a mystery to Dr. Coyne how the mint managed to get the long axis of the planchet oriented with the standing Norseman on every piece he has seen. The medals were struck on the (current) size will find the first issues are of the Series Series 1929 in the popular National Currency

(brown seal) are in the small (current) size.

6) The scarcest U.S. Seated Liberty Dollar in collector hands is the 1870-S. There seem to be about a dozen specimens in various states of preservation extant. The coins were not listed on mint records, and auction records in the $400,000 - and up class exist. The 1851 and 1852 issues seem about equally scarce and would come in second with auction appearances of a few coins per year and retail listings of several different coins per year. The 1873 CC is the most difficult of the four Carson City issues. Formation of a set of Seated Dollars, even without the 1870-S is a multi-year undertaking.

COINS FOR A'S REPORT

Richard Laster, Chairman

Greetings Friends,

Travel is not necessarily something which is part of my regular diet however I have found myself for various reasons in some interesting places over these last few years. For example as I put these thoughts to paper I am still trying to recoup from getting off an airplane just yesterday night. Actually it was very early this morning. A small part of my family ventured to the area in and around London and the area in and around Paris. I have that post-flight feeling where it seems as though the room is swaying.

Through the years, courtesy the limited travel I have had the privilege to make, I have made a collection of specific numismatic related experiences. It was back just a few years ago I was able to take the tour of the mint in Potosi I mentioned in a previous letter of this sort. I have also seen state numismatic collections in Russia, Cuba, England, and most recently in Paris. Even though I have yet to see the ANA museum I have spent a fair amount of time at the Smithsonian Numismatic collection. The holding I enjoyed the most was at the American Numismatic Society presentation at the Federal Reserve building in New York City. This display is my favorite because it is a simplistic and logical layout created around a design which flows in a rational historic fashion. There was just enough to see. I remember specifically one display which had in close proximity an 1804 dollar, a beautiful high relief 1907 Double Eagle, and a 1933 Double Eagle.

I share this because in my mind is a quote from one of the members of the local coin club. He has said many times, and I cannot disagree, "if it is coins it has to be fun." I've also heard others say "coins are 'cool." We all have opinions on that order. Simply fill in your own sentence with your own adjective or other descriptive term.

One of the reasons I am enjoying the privilege of doing TNA Coins for A's is having the chance to be in communication with young folks on a statewide level. Many are new to numismatics. I don't receive a whole lot of thank you letters however the ones I do hear from share their excitement and how great it is to be gifted in ways never expected. I know we all do understand the sentiment of one who is excited about a revelation. There is much good will generated by our organization through our service to many, especially to the young under our care. Thanks for your generosity. We have the chance to give someone the gift of "collecting" and all that comes

As you can tell one of my "collections" is checking out numismatic displays here and there. These are in fact wonderful to see and experience. In a like way it is exciting to touch, explore, research, and encounter knowledge found on the coins in my own holding. I hear affirmation to this extent from those young folks we serve.

Thanks for the change to represent "us" at our finest.

Have a blessed day,

NUMISMATIC ORIGINS OF IN GOD WE

In December 1863, the Director of the Mint submitted designs for new one-cent coin, two-cent coin, and three-cent coin to Secretary Chase for approval. He proposed that upon the designs either OUR COUNTRY; OUR GOD or GOD, OUR TRUST should appear as a motto on the coins. In a letter to the Mint Director on December 9, 1863, Secretary Chase stated:

I approve your mottoes, only suggesting that on that with the Washington obverse the motto should begin with the word OUR, so as to read OUR GOD AND OUR COUNTRY. And on that with the shield, it should be changed so as to read: IN GOD WE TRUST.

The Congress passed the Act of April 22, 1864. This legislation changed the composition of the one-cent coin and authorized the minting of the two-cent coin. The Mint Director was directed to develop the designs for these coins for final approval of the Secretary. IN GOD WE TRUST first appeared on the 1864 two-cent coin.

Another Act of Congress passed on March 3, 1865. It allowed the Mint Director, with the Secretary's approval, to place the motto on all gold and silver coins that "shall admit the inscription thereon." Under the Act, the motto was placed on the gold double-eagle coin, the gold eagle coin, and the gold half-eagle coin. It was also placed on the silver dollar coin, the half-dollar coin and the quarter-dollar coin, and on the nickel three-cent coin beginning in 1866. Later, Congress passed the Coinage Act of February 12, 1873. It also said that the Secretary "may cause the motto IN GOD WE TRUST to be inscribed on such coins as shall admit of such motto."

The use of IN GOD WE TRUST has not been uninterrupted. The motto disappeared from the five-cent coin in 1883, and did not reappear until production of the Jefferson nickel began in 1938. Since 1938, all United States coins bear the inscription. Later, the motto was found missing from the new design of the double-eagle gold coin and the eagle gold coin shortly after they appeared in 1907. In response to a general demand, Congress ordered it restored, and the Act of May 18, 1908, made it mandatory on all coins upon which it had previously appeared. IN GOD WE TRUST was not mandatory on the one-cent coin and five-cent coin. It could be placed on them by the Secretary or the Mint Director with the Secretary's approval.

The motto has been in continuous use on the one-cent coin since 1909, and on the tencent coin since 1916. It also has appeared on all gold coins and silver dollar coins, half-dollar coins, and quarter-dollar coins struck since July 1, 1908.

A law passed by the 84th Congress (P.L. 84-140) and approved by the President on July 30, 1956, the President approved a Joint Resolution of the 84th Congress, declaring IN GOD WE TRUST the national motto of the United States. IN GOD WE TRUST was first used on paper money in 1957, when it appeared on the one-dollar silver certificate. The first paper currency bearing the motto entered circulation on October 1, 1957. The Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) was converting to the dry intaglio printing process. During this conversion, it gradually included IN GOD WE TRUST in the back design of all classes and denominations of currency.

As a part of a comprehensive modernization program the BEP successfully developed and installed new high-speed rotary intaglio printing presses in 1957. These allowed BEP to print currency by the dry intaglio process, 32 notes to the sheet. One-dollar silver certificates were the first denomination printed on the new high-speed presses. They included IN GOD WE TRUST as part of the reverse design as BEP adopted new dies according to the law. The motto also appeared on one-dollar silver certificates of the 1957-A and 1957-B series.

BEP prints United States paper currency by an intaglio process from engraved plates. It was necessary, therefore, to engrave the motto into the printing plates as a part of the basic engraved design to give it the prominence it deserved.

One-dollar silver certificates series 1935, 1935-A, 1935-B, 1935-C, 1935-D, 1935-E, 1935-F, 1935-G, and 1935-H were all printed on the older flat-bed presses by the wet intaglio process. P.L. 84-140 recognized that an enormous expense would be associated with immediately replacing the costly printing plates. The law allowed BEP to gradually convert to the inclusion of IN GOD WE TRUST on the currency. Accordingly, the motto is not found on series 1935-E and 1935-F onedollar notes. By September 1961, IN GOD WE TRUST had been added to the back design of the Series 1935-G notes. Some early printings of this series do not bear the motto. IN GOD WE TRUST appears on all series 1935-H one-dollar silver certificates.

Below is a listing by denomination of the first production and delivery dates for currency bearing IN GOD WE TRUST:

From the Wikipedia Internet Site:

TRUST CONTROVERSY

The motto is opposed for a variety of reasons, but is still widely supported by Americans. According to a 2003 Gallup Poll, 90% of Americans approve of the inscription on U.S. coins. The Establishment Clause of the First Amendment states that congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion. Critics contend that the motto's placement on money constitutes the establishment of a religion or a church by the government. The Supreme Court has upheld the motto because it has "lost through rote repetition any significant religious content"; so-called acts of "ceremonial deism" that have lost their "history, character, and context". In such related decisions as Zorach v. Clauson, the Supreme Court has also held that the nation's "institutions presuppose a Supreme Being" and that government recognition of God does not constitute the establishment of such a state church as the Constitution's authors intended to prohibit. Constitutionalists object to sworn judiciaries employing historical context in what they believe ought to be a raw textual interpretation. Some activists have been known to cross out the motto on paper money as a form of protest. Although federal law (18 U.S.C. § 333 and 18 U.S.C. § 475) prohibits defacement and modification of currency under certain specific conditions, no documented cases exist of prosecution for such action, and the Federal Reserve frequently recirculates similarly defaced notes. Outside of constitutional objections, President Theodore Roosevelt took issue with placing the motto on coinage as he considered it sacrilegious to put the name of God on money.

THE CARSON

THE MYSTIQUE OF THE "WILD WEST" ATTRACTS EVERYONE, ESPECIALLY COIN

THE COMSTOCK LODE

The Comstock Lode and its fortune are not imaginary. History books are replete with exploits of the fabled finding. This silver fortune was an important factor in the settlement of the American West.

The Comstock Lode strike led to the rapid growth of mining boomtowns. One such boomtown was Virginia City, shown above, as it appeared circa 1867. Image courtesy of National Archives.

Prominent in those rough and tumble times was the development of Carson City. Founded in 1858 by Abe Curry, only one year prior to Henry Comstock's initial claim, Carson City's growth accelerated dramatically as an important mining town while precious ore, mostly silver, was being uncovered nearby. In 1861, prosperous Carson City became the capital of the Nevada Territory, and remained the seat of state government when Nevada joined the Union in 1864, just as the Civil War was winding down.

1860s Carson City, the intersection of Second and Carson Streets. It was at this crossing that the Nevada state capital was eventually constructed. Six blocks to the north is where the Carson City Mint was built. Image courtesy of Library of Congress.

Most of the riches were shipped over the Sierra Nevada Mountains to the US branch mint operating in San Francisco, and then back again after being converted to coinage. This practice was very expensive and risky, as the trails were closely patrolled by opportunistic thieves. Moreover, the population of the Nevada mining district numbered in the tens of thousands, where the scarcity of hard money made routine financial transactions difficult. Against this set of conditions, Nevada Territory mine owners petitioned Congress for a new branch mint in their vicinity. Legislation to establish a mint in the Nevada Territory was approved on March 3, 1863. Thus began a magnificent American numismatic legacy.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE "CC" MINT

The legislation did not specify where the new mint was to be built, only that it must be located somewhere within the Nevada Territory.

Abe Curry, by now one of the most influential men in entire region, lobbied the government to choose Carson City as the site of the new mint.

Curry stressed that since Carson City was conveniently located to the major mining operations, it would be an excellent choice to situate a coining facility. Based on this reasoning, Carson City was ultimately chosen to host the new branch mint.

In September 1863, the federal government purchased Block 65 from private citizens in Carson City, for the purpose of constructing the coining facility. The Supervising Architect of the Treasury, Alfred B. Mullett, was the chief designer of the project, the first of his 8-year career with the Treasury Department. Mullet went on to become one of the most consequential architects of his time, and adjudged to be among his greatest achievements was the second San Francisco Mint, better known as the "Granite Lady".

The long-awaited Mint drawings, specifications and authorizing documents arrived in Carson City on July 17, 1866. Surrounded by considerable fanfare, the ground-breaking ceremony was held the following morning.

Alfred B. Mullet's architectural drawing of the proposed Carson City Mint's front elevation. Image courtesy of Library of Congress.

Not surprisingly, Abe Curry was named to oversee construction as the general contractor. The cornerstone was laid at Block 65 on September 24, 1866, a location that is today found at the northwest corner of Carson (Hwy 395) and Robinson Streets in Carson City.

Mullett's design called for a two-story main building measuring 88 feet in width and 58 feet in depth, supported by a basement foundation. The chief characteristic of the front elevation was a 12 by 15 entrance porch. The main building was to be topped by an ornate brick cupola. The 86 feet by 27 feet single-story west wing was designated to house boiler house operations, an engine room, carpentry shop and storage.

On December 13, 1869 the Carson City Mint was declared complete. Construction costs totaled $426,788 far above the $150,000 allocated for the project.

On December 28, 1869 the area was shaken by an earthquake. Many buildings in Carson City were destroyed but the Mint survived intact.

Evidently, the Mint was well-built in spite of all the obstacles encountered during its construction. Wells Fargo delivered coinage dies from Philadelphia, the first ever bearing the "CC" mint mark, on Jan 10, 1870. Finally, the Carson City Mint was open for business.

Coin Production Begins

The very first Carson City Mint coin to debut was the 1870-CC Liberty Seated silver dollar. On February 11, 1870, Mr. A. Wright, an individual who had earlier deposited silver at the Mint, received 2303 of these dollars. Three days later gold eagles ($10 gold coins) were struck followed closely by half eagles ($5 gold) and double eagles ($20 gold).

Several denominations of US coins were never minted at Carson City, even though they were contemporaries of the Carson City Mint. These included all coins composed of copper and nickel, half dimes, gold dollars, quarter eagles, and three dollar gold pieces.

Oddly enough, the most short-lived American coin series ever, the 20-cent piece, was in fact produced at Carson City. Actually, the 1876-CC is one of the rarities most cherished by modern day coin collectors worth over $400,000 in top uncirculated condition.

CITY MINT

COLLECTORS SEEKING THAT ELUSIVE "CC" MINT MARK TO COMPLETE THEIR COLLECTION.

THE CARSON CITY MINT BECOMES A POLITICAL PAWN

During its time of service, politics often impacted the status of the Carson City Mint. Years earlier, in 1834, the US government announced it would value silver and gold at a ratio of 16 to 1, (up from the 15:1 ratio established in 1792, see bimetallism). In doing so, Uncle Sam also continued to specify the weight of silver or gold to be coined into one dollar's worth of hard money. Anyone could bring their bullion to the Mint and receive "Y" dollars worth of coins in exchange for "X" ounces of bullion, based on these criteria. In effect, this practice set the price the government was willing to pay per troy ounce for silver and gold (example: a $10 gold eagle, containing .48375 troy ounces of pure gold, put the governmental value of gold at $20.67 per troy ounce).

This worked well until the late 1840's and 1850's, when the supply of gold increased dramatically, upsetting the existing gold-silver balance (see California Gold Rush). Consequently, silver became more scarce relative to gold than before, meaning silver barons could sell 16 ounces of silver to private buyers, many of the foreign-based, for more than one ounce of gold. As a result, they often preferred to sell their silver this way rather than take it to one of the US mints for conversion into coinage.

This political cartoon, sympathetic to the Silverites, prophesied that a gold standard would destroy prosperity by 1894. A severe economic depression did indeed hit the US in 1893, but as with all things political, the causes of the downturn were hotly contested. Public domain image.

As the prolific Comstock Lode and mines in Colorado dumped silver into the open market, this situation reversed itself and by the mid 1870's, private buyers were purchasing 16 ounces of silver for less than one ounce of gold.

Recalling the Treasury's offer to buy silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, silver owners came to the Carson City Mint and other US mints, desiring their silver to be coined into dollars.

Much to their disgust, they learned that Congress had already enacted the Coinage Act of 1873, eliminating the silver dollar and in effect, demonetized silver and committed our country to a gold standard only. Silver advocates, or "Silverites," as they came to be known, denounced the law as the "Crime of '73". This touched off a bitter political feud between Silverites seeking the return of bimetallism, and the "Gold Bugs", those who favored the gold monometallism concept. Throughout the remainder of the 19th century and then some, this controversy dominated American political debate.

Furious at the loss of a profitable market for their bullion, the "Crime of '73" became a rallying cry for groups, mostly from the West, insisting the government buy silver. The persuasive Silverites arm-twisted Congress to pass the Bland-Allison Act in 1878.

The issuance of the Morgan silver dollar in 1878 was a victory for silver advocates in their long standing feud against the Gold Bugs. Morgan dollars, just like the Carson City Mint product above, were well received in western states. Eastern power brokers viewed the white metal and the political movement behind it as a threat to their economic security. Photo courtesy of Ira & Larry Goldberg Coins & Collectibles, Inc., Beverly Hills, CA.

This was not a full return to bimetallism, but under Bland-Allison, the Treasury Dept was required to purchase $2 to $4 million of silver monthly and mint it into dollar coins, in a quest to stabilize the price of silver at artificially high levels. The dollars were named after George T. Morgan, the designer of the new coin. Accordingly, large quantities of Morgan silver dollars were minted, but many did not circulate well, especially in eastern states where silver was resented. Millions of the unused coins ended up in Treasury storage vaults for decades.

Grover Cleveland (top) squared off against Benjamin Harrison in the 1888 election, with Harrison thwarting Cleveland's bid for re-election.

The voters returned Cleveland to office in 1892, the only president ever elected twice to non-consecutive terms. Image courtesy of the White House Archives.

The election of 1884 sent Democrat Grover Cleveland to the White House. At that time, the top Carson City Mint officials had been placed there by Republican presidents and were loyal members of the GOP. In September 1885, Cleveland fired all mint employees and completely shut down the facility.

The doors reopened a year later, but only to function as an assay office. When Benjamin Harrison recaptured the presidency for the GOP in 1888, the Democratic appointees were replaced by Republicans. In 1889, Carson City was allocated funds to resume coining operations.

The Bland-Allison Act was modified by the Sherman Silver Purchase Act of 1890. The Act mandated a government purchase of 4.5 million ounces of silver each month, to be paid for with Treasury bonds redeemable in either gold or silver. Unexpectedly, most bond holders redeemed their notes in gold, depleting the Treasury's gold reserve and throwing the entire country into a severe financial panic in 1893, leading to the repeal of the Sherman Act and greatly slowing the production of silver dollars. This is explains the scarcity of silver dollars minted in the years 1893 through 1895.

May 5, 1893, stock values on the New York Stock Exchange suddenly spiral downward, plunging the United States into a severe depression. Thousands of businesses and factories closed their doors. Among the Panic of 1893 casualties was the Carson City Mint, viewed by Treasury Department officials as expendable. Public domain image, from August 12, 1893 Harper's Weekly.

Simultaneous to the national political and economic developments of the 1890's, the once plentiful Nevada silver mines were trailing off. Add to that a persistently low silver price, the already mentioned national economic crises and whiff of scandal (a Mint employee was accused of attempting to smuggle out gold bullion in a lunch box), it came as no surprise when on June 1, 1893, Mint Director Robert Preston ordered a cessation of coining operations at the Carson City Mint.

Because the facility was to remain open as an assay office, many assumed that when conditions improved, coins would once again emanate from Carson City. But thanks to the actions of a few greedy individuals, the world had seen the last of the "CC" coins.

His book "The Paper Republic" is available for preorder at www.brightskypress. com.

June Meeting - The June 11th, 2009, meeting of the NorthEast Tarrant Coin Club was opened by President Jack Gilbert at 7PM. There were over 60 members and guests in attendance.

Special Business Item: ANA Medal Fund Contribution and Wooden Nickel Expenses: Prior to the June club meeting, the Board met and discussed the amount that the club should contribute to the ANA Medal fund. The expected total amount of the fund should be around $15,000, consisting of contributions by the area coin clubs and the TNA. The Board has voted to recommend that the club members approve the contribution of $2,500 by NETCC. These funds will be used to design medals, sink dies, and produce medals for sale prior to, and during, the 2010 Spring ANA Show in Fort Worth. Proceeds of the sale of the Medals will be used for certain expenses including sending a representative to the upcoming August ANA show in LA and supplying T-Shirts for volunteers. Remaining funds will be distributed to each participating club in the ratio of their contribution to the total amount contributed to the fund. The number of medals that will be produced will depend on the amount of contributions from the clubs.

While there is every indication that the club will receive substantially all its contribution back (or even make a small profit) there is a risk that the club will not receive all its original contribution.

The Board has also voted to recommend the expenditure of up to $700 to acquire 5,000 wooden nickels with appropriate art work to advertise our club.

Considering the amount of the contribution for the medals and the amount of the expense for the wooden nickels, the club members must vote to approve the payment and the expense. Discussions will be held at the July meeting and the vote will be held at the August meeting. You must be present in August to vote.

Visitors: This was our annual kids' night – there were over 20 visitors in attendance. New Members: Alex Matthews, Keith Keister Educational Program: This special annual kids night meeting featured two educational programs – one for kids, and another for adults.

Robert Schultz spoke to the adults about getting more youth involved in coin collecting. Some highlights: 1. Sit down and TALK with kids about their interests and coin collecting. Read and give them books about coins the Red Book is a good starting point, and grading guides are excellent resources. Get used rolls of coins from your bank branch, and search them together for interesting and unusual finds. Talk about coins and history. Interest may wane – plant the coin collecting seed early.

Richard Wallace spoke to the children and youth about how to collect coins. Thanks to CR Coins and other contributors from NETCC, all participants walked away with excellent collection starters and supplies. Richard gave many important tips on collecting, handling, and storing Steve Lehr is leading the effort to help Scouts get their numismatic merit badges. September and October are both Scout nights. Please invite any Scouts that you know. This will help both the Scouts and the NETCC prepare for the ANA Money Show merit badge program. The ANA Money Show in Portland helped over 400 Scouts receive the merit badge. We are looking for a Girl Scout contact - if you know any GS troop leaders, please invite them and give Steve Lehr their contact information.

Interesting Finds: Steve Lehr has a 1797 British Cartwheel - a 2 pence piece that weighed 2 ounces. Jack Gilbert displayed the new Braille commemorative. Robert Schultz found a type II new cent in circulation.

Williamson County Coin Club

April Meeting - The April 7, 2009 meeting of the Williamson County Coin Club was opened at 7:20 PM, with five members present.

The Secretary's Report for March meeting was read and accepted.

Our Short Snorter bill was a 1 Manat (Bir Manat) banknote from Turkmenistan. We examined it for security features and found the following:: A horse watermark Nice intaglio printing with fine color gradations A security strip Front-back correspondence in three areas on the note And a serial number printed twice, in two different colors Apparently, with all these all these other security features, microprinting was considered unnecessary.

Show and Tell: Cyn brought a $25 roll of the newest presidential dollar (William Henry Harrison). James just came back from a trip to Australia and New Zealand, and brought us a complete set of current Australian coins and banknotes. All the banknotes were made of a tough, untearable plastic, and were each a different size. Rod brought a handout on the Centennial medals he had brought last month. Roy brought a silver Lincoln Commemorative Dollar, 2009-P proof. Instead of the famous first words of the Gettysburg addresss, this coin features the lesser-known last 47 words of his great speech. Roger brought a whole load of paper, as usual. This included: A weird "free gift" from an eBay purchase, a modern reproduction of an Egyptian papyrus, which was both printed and handpainted. There had been some dispute within the household concerning how it was made. An Firestone advertisment envelope with a 1925 Christmas Seal. Inside was an uncirculated $1 large-size banknote. The note should have been a $5 or $10, bill as that was the usual Christmas bonus back then, so this note is probably not the one that was actually delivered inside the envelope. An 1862 $100 Confederate Train note. An old 1910 5 Peso Mexican banknote issued by "El Banco Londres Y Mexico" And a lucite block with an illusory $100 pack of one-dollar US notes. This was a gimmick item, meant for a Texas Plaggenings paperwieght, and contains 2 one-dollar bills and 98 pieces of paper inbetween them.

Note: our meeting time has changed to avoid a conflict with the Capitol City Coin Club. We now meet the 4th Tuesday of the month instead of the 1st. We will continue to meet at the Round Rock Serving Center.

May Meeting - Meeting called to order at exactly 7:00 p.m. by President Edwin Johnston. The attendance of 36 included 33 members and 3 guests First item of business was introduction of honored guests including Doug Kinton, Joe Duke, and Eric Clark.

The president turned over the floor to Steve Kutz for Show and Tell. Steve Kutz brought along perhaps the "oldest" item ever presented at the club for Show and Tell. He had an interesting piece of petrified wood found at his grandfather's farm in Lee County just outside of Giddings. Francis Townsend brought along some samples he picked up at the Central States show. The samples were actually examples of work done by "Michigan Master Numismatic Service," a new grading organization. Karl Moody brought along a "solid gold" JFK Half Dollar, an item he purchased at a coin show. The coin is very, very small. Bruce Burton looked great especially considering he was recovering from surgery. Bruce brought along a Max Mehl price list from the post-Mehl years of the company. Bruce noted the catalogue had a Beverly Hills, California address and was dated 1961. John Barber brought an odd and interesting collection of "fantasy" tokens. The best way to describe these is as "brothel" tokens. John stressed that he did NOT acquire any of these in a commercial transaction at the place of alleged issue. Kevin Scace shared some information concerning the recent Braille commemorative coin issued by the United States mint. He also had a certificate for the same. Edwin Johnston recently acquired the newest presidential dollars. These feature the portrait of John Tyler. As is Edwin's tradition, he encouraged the members of the club to take a dollar and leave a dollar. Alvin Stern brought along a book created in 1945 to acquaint American service personnel serving in post-liberation Italy with the City of Rome. Included in the section on Roman history were photos of some ancient coins. Richard Laster shared a few thoughts on an item he picked up at the recent Texas Numismatic Association show up in Fort Worth. He had a Republic of Texas Treasury Warrant issued for "repairs to the Steamship Zavalla." Ricardo De Leon offered for our consideration a most rare Mexican coin.

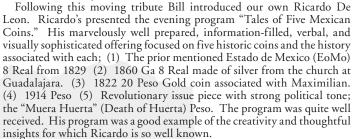

Following Show and Tell Edwin called upon Vice President Bill Watson to introduce the program for the evening. Bill chose to share a few moments of personal privilege to say thank you to Francis Townsend for the years in which Francis volunteered to bring drinks for the club. Bill then shared a few words concerning veterans and in particular offered the poem "In Flanders Field." He expressed his own thanks to all who have served the country and especially to those who sacrificed their lives for our freedom. Bill spoke of his own experience as a Marine who served between the wars in Korea and Vietnam.

It is the privilege of the Double Shift and your Secretary to share the poem Bill offered in honor of Memorial Day;

In Flanders Fields
In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lt.-Col. John McCrae (1872 - 1918)

Following program we turned our attention to the Business agenda of the club: - Approved three new members - Sonny Toupard, Thomas Tower, Jr. and Kari Hanicuk – all three are with Royal Coin in Houston - Shared information concerning amendment of club bylaws. The good news is because of the generosity of various shops and individuals the supply of coins for Coins for A's has been replenished. It is important to note that two new applicants for club membership came to us through the Coins for A's program. - It was duly noted by the president that our own Double Shift, and especially editor John Barber, received the Texas Numismatic Association Calvin Tidwell Award for best club newsletter. (Personal note from rdl: My official "secretarial hat" is tipped to John for his remarkable work.) It is truly a great gift John shares specifically to the club and to the numismatic community in general. The award is not only a Texas-sized honor but also is literally "Texas" shaped. You'll want to see it, if you haven't already. - Money Show of the Southwest – John Trout was pleased to say "everything is on schedule." He also announced Michael Greenspan as coordinator of registration.

Transitional coins are from the Spanish Colonial era and feature various portraits which are inconsistent with the name of the King placed on the obverse of the coin. Carl Schwenker — Brought some real rarities he picked up at bargain basement prices in China. One was an 1889 cc dollar. The other, as we can all attest to this, was a 1902 cc dollar. Both July Meeting - The meeting was called to order by President Dwight Sowle with 19 members and guests present. Dwight distributed a copy of the proposed constitution and bylaws to club members. After discussion, a motion was made and unanimously adopted to approve the proposed club constitution and bylaws as presented. Additional agenda items included recognition of visitors and club member birthdays for July. Of special interest, one club member brought several original lithographs dating back to the 1860s for member show and tell. The lithographs included George Meade, Ulysses S Grant, and Abraham Lincoln. A big thank you goes to Bruce and his wife for providing refreshments (homemade treats) at this month's meeting.

Special Presentation: The club welcomed our very own Vice President, Darrell Deitenbeck. Darrell recently toured the Bureau of Printing and Engraving (BEP) in Washington, D.C. As you might expect, an extremely high level of security is enforced at this facility. No cameras or cell phones are allowed and guests must remain in sight of the tour guide at all times. In fact, Darrell said the tour guide had to walk backwards during the entire tour as to not lose sight of the guests. The guide presented a lot of very interesting information during the tour about the BEP operations, how the printing process occurs, and the materials used for currency. They even answered his questions on Star notes. Darrell also brought a very interesting poster he purchased at the BEP of oversized currency replicas from $1 up to $100,000. A big thank you goes to Darrell for his interesting and informative presentation.

DISTRICT THIRTEEN

Greenbelt Coin Club

June Meeting - The June meeting of the Greenbelt Coin Club was held at the Vernon College Library on June 1, 2009. Twelve members were in attendance. The meeting was called to order at 7:10 PM by President Charles Lynn.

Under new business, the group discussed the 2010 Wichita Falls Coin Show of which an exact date has not yet been set.

Gene Wheeler provided some information on recent shows that he had set up at, including the TNA show in Fort Worth and the show at Long Beach. He said that he was somewhat disappointed in the TNA show, and that when he arrived at the Long Beach show, it was like a morgue. Per Gene, the economy is still drastically affecting the shows. He said that the general public is a little scared right now and unsure what to do. Lots of lookers, but they are neither buying coins nor selling what they have. Gene said that in recent shows, he has only purchased about one-third of what he usually purchases from show attendees. He said that 90% of his business at the Long Beach show was with other dealers.

Bryan Sweitzer provided another mystery package of cents for members to guess how many were in the package. Turns out, the value of the cents was $3.95, and Steve Ramsey won the coins with his guess of $3.85.

July Meeting - The July meeting of the Greenbelt Coin Club was held on July 6, 2009, at the Vernon College Library in Vernon Texas. The meeting was called to order by President Charles Lynn at 7:12 PM. There were 14 members and one guest, Ms Sandy Castleman, in attendance.

Bill Howard announced that he had talked to Gene Wheeler about some of the recent coin shows that Gene had attended. Per Bill, Gene had just returned from the Memphis show where he reported that business was very slow -- nothing moving coin-wise. It was also announced that the Fort Worth Coin Show (formerly Green Oaks) would be held this upcoming weekend at Lockheed Aeronautics. Charles Lynn said that he had read that PCGS is refusing to recognize some of the new Lincoln Cent varities such as the extra fingers. As a result, prices for these varieties were dropping sharply in price.

Bryan Sweitzer brought his monthly mystery bag of coins for attendees to guess how many were in the bag. The winner was Pat Moore who only missed the number by 6 coins.

Wichita Falls Coin Club

May Meeting - 13 Members were present for the meeting, and two visitors: Richard Fennessy, and Stephen Ramsey who also joined the club. Meeting Minutes were read by Mark Snyder. Mark Snyder presented the Treasurer's Report.

Announcements: Rob Robinson announced the new member Stephen Ramsey from Vernon. He said that the ANA Spring show will be March 25-28 at Ft. Worth Convention Center.

Old Business: Ray Whyborn asked about the coins for A's program discussed in the meeting minutes from the club. Rob Robinson said he would look into seeing what the criteria and form for submission are for the program so that we may use it in the coin club. The committee for the next coin show gave a report on the show's progress.

Mr. David Scott presented the program about different ways to collect and store coins.

DISTRICT SEVENTEEN

Waco Coin Club

May Meeting - President Tom Campbell called the meeting to order. There were 15 members in attendance.

The April minutes and Treasurer's report were read and approved.

Cashpot –Robert Pricer was not in attendance. Next month the pot will be $65.

BUSINESS: The coin show report was given. The show next year will be at the Bellmead Civic Center for the last Saturday in April 2010. Tom Campbell still needs ideas for the use of our funds in the show account. Ray Leggett suggested having medals struck for ANAshow to be held in Ft.Worth. These would be handed out at the door. Paul Garner suggested wooden nickels would be cheaper.

Alan Wood won the election for our TNA governor. Michael Grant is the new president of TNA Paul Garner received the Hall of Fame Award. Everyone is encouraged to join TNA. One benefit is that you get into TNA shows free.

Paul Garner donated a 2010 Red Book to be auctioned off with the proceeds to be given to the club. Gene Huffty was high bidder at $8.00. HISTORICAL FACTS: In God We Trust. Four simple words. One humble sentiment. The beloved national motto of the United States. In God We TrustNo phrase better describes America's most essential core value. It's hard to imagine American coins and currency without this simple yet powerful message. In God We Trust.

However, God was never mentioned on US currency before 1864 when this phrase first appeared on a new 2-cent piece. The American people, devastated by the Civil War and reeling from the tragic assassination of Abraham Lincoln, were deeply inspired by this humble message. In God We Trust. It was so wildly popular that it's inclusion eventually became required by law.
